

Building Area Studies Collections

Edited by Dan Hazen and James Henry Spohrer

2007

Harrassowitz Verlag · Wiesbaden

ISSN 0408-8107
ISBN 978-3-447-05512-3

Contents

| | |
|--|----|
| Introduction | 1 |
| Purpose and Goals..... | 1 |
| The Nature and Needs of Area Studies Librarianship | 3 |
| Cooperation as a Common Concern | 5 |
| A Note on Universal Resource Locators | 12 |
| David L. Easterbrook | |
| Building Area Studies Collections in African Studies | 13 |
| Historical Background | 13 |
| Organizations | 15 |
| Organizational Publications and Websites | 17 |
| African Bibliographical Resources | 21 |
| Acquisitions Channels and Methods | 23 |
| Ethical Issues | 26 |
| Conclusion | 27 |
| Bibliography | 27 |
| Eva Sartori and Jeffry Larson | |
| Selecting Library Materials in the Romance Languages | 30 |
| Introduction | 30 |
| The Romance Languages Selector | 31 |
| Library Organization and Romance Language Selection | 34 |
| Foreign Language Enrollments | 35 |
| Research Trends | 36 |
| Foreign-Language Acquisitions in Academic Libraries | 38 |
| Budgets | 38 |
| Scope of Collecting | 40 |
| The Book Trade | 40 |
| Digital Publishing | 42 |
| Selection Tools | 44 |
| Our-of-print Materials | 50 |
| Conclusion | 50 |
| Appendix: Publishing Information on Paper and on the Web | 51 |

Judith Henchy

| | |
|--|----|
| Building Library Collections in Southeast Asian Studies | 57 |
| Southeast Asian Collections in the North American Academy | 59 |
| Contemporary Information Industries in Southeast Asia: Challenges for Collections | 61 |
| Southeast Asia Collections: Breadth of Coverage and Diversity of Sources | 63 |
| Assessing Southeast Asia Collections in the United States | 65 |
| Access to Resources | 66 |
| Journals and Newspapers | 66 |
| Official Government Publications | 67 |
| Non-governmental Organization Resources | 67 |
| Audiovisual Materials | 68 |
| Archival Collections | 69 |
| Electronic Information | 69 |
| Cooperative Collection Development | 70 |
| Funding for Southeast Asia Collections | 73 |
| Gifts and Exchanges | 75 |
| Collection Building Guides | 75 |
| Conclusion: The Continuing Challenges of Discovery and Delivery | 77 |
| Bibliography | 78 |

David Hirsch

From Parchment to Pixels:

| | |
|---|----|
| Middle Eastern Collection Development in Academic Libraries | 81 |
| History | 81 |
| Geographic Coverage | 82 |
| Languages | 82 |
| Core versus Research Collections | 83 |
| Collections Budgets | 84 |
| The Book Trade in the Region | 84 |
| Lebanon | 84 |
| Egypt | 85 |
| Jordan | 86 |
| Iraq | 87 |
| Syria | 88 |
| West Bank, Gaza, and Arabic Titles in Israel | 88 |
| Saudi Arabia | 89 |
| Yemen | 90 |
| Bahrain and Oman | 90 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| United Arab Emirates | 91 |
| Kuwait | 92 |
| Qatar | 92 |
| Morocco, Algeria, and Libya | 93 |
| Sudan | 93 |
| Iran | 94 |
| Turkey | 95 |
| Émigré Materials and Diaspora Publications | 95 |
| National and Regional Bibliographies | 97 |
| Electronic Resources | 99 |
| Acquisition Channels | 99 |
| Professional Organizations | 104 |
| Other National Organizations | 104 |
| Conclusion | 105 |
| Bibliography | 105 |
| Lynn Shirey | |
| Latin American Collections | 108 |
| Overview | 108 |
| Regions and Languages | 108 |
| Related Publishing Areas | 109 |
| Institutional Collecting Structures | 111 |
| Publishing, Distribution, Bibliographical Control and Acquisition: An Historical Overview | 112 |
| Publishing, Bibliographical Tools, the Book Trade and Library Collections: The Situation Today | 115 |
| Cooperation Today | 120 |
| Regional Collecting Consortia and other Professional Organizations | 121 |
| Practical Considerations and Special Topics | 123 |
| Conclusion | 126 |
| Bibliography | 126 |
| Diane Perushek | |
| Building Library Collections in East Asian Studies | 130 |
| East Asian Regions and Realpolitik | 130 |
| Collecting East Asian Materials | 132 |
| Budget Considerations | 135 |
| The Benefits of Partnership | 136 |
| Collecting in China and Taiwan | 138 |
| Collecting in Japan | 140 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Collecting in Korea | 141 |
| Conclusion | 143 |
| Bibliography | 143 |
| James H. Spohrer | |
| Building Studies Collections | 145 |
| Germanic Studies Collections | 145 |
| Germanic Studies in U.S. Universities | 146 |
| Building Germanic Collections | 148 |
| The Germanic Collection Development Plan | 150 |
| Skills and Qualifications | 152 |
| Typical Duties and Responsibilities | 153 |
| Some Normative Notes on Germanic Collection Development | 154 |
| Building Digital Collections of Germanic Materials | 157 |
| German Vendors and Commercial Agents | 158 |
| Commercial Agents for Dutch and Flemish Materials | 159 |
| Agents for the Nordic Countries | 159 |
| German Bibliographic and Selection Tools | 160 |
| INETBIB, WESSWEB, GERMAN-E, WIG-L, DISC-NORDLIB ... | 161 |
| Summary | 163 |