Preface

This volume evolved out of the papers presented at the Biblical Law session of the SBL International Meeting 2009 in Rome focusing upon “Legal Distinctions regarding Foreigners.” The main interest of this session was the status of foreigners in law according to biblical and Ancient Near Eastern traditions. It dealt with the differentiation between certain groups of foreigners, and it treated foreigners’ rights with respect to their welfare or the possibilities of their social and cultic participation and integration.

The editors wish to thank the editor of the “Beihefte zur Zeitschrift für Altorientalische und Biblische Rechtsgeschichte,” Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Eckart Otto (Munich), for accepting this volume in the series, and Harrassowitz for publishing this volume.

Additionally, the editors would like to thank Prof. Dr. Bruce Wells (Saint Joseph’s University) for all the work he invested in correcting the English of this volume, and Katharina Stichling (Tübingen) for her great efforts in the formal editing of the articles and preparing the registers.

Finally, the editors are grateful for the sponsoring of the volume by the Cluster of Excellence “Religion and Politics in Pre-Modern and Modern Cultures” at the University of Münster.
