It is a great pleasure to convey my gratitude to the people who contributed in different ways to this volume and whose help and support made this book possible. Neville Morely (Exeter) and Arjan Zuiderhoek (Ghent), who organise the Antiquity network of the European Social Science History Conference (ESSHC), kindly accepted the panel “Ancient Rulers in Baroque Opera” for the 11th ESSHC in Valencia in the spring of 2016, from which this volume derives. In addition, Arjan Zuiderhoek did us the honour of chairing the session and officiating as a discussant. Financial support for the panel and this volume was granted by the Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst (DAAD) and Kassel University. The publication of these proceedings would not have been possible without the help of Yvonne Wagner (Salzburg), who adopted the utmost care in proof reading. Virginia Geisel (Marburg) and Michael Yonan (Columbia) gave invaluable comments on the language and time and again helped with the clarity of thoughts. Rebecca Frei (Kassel) assisted in supplying remote literature.

I owe the greatest thanks to the contributors, who eagerly and light-heartedly followed my invitation to join this project, for their enthusiasm and their insightful papers. I would also like to express my gratitude to the audience at ESSHC for lively discussions, an inspiring exchange of ideas and also for raising unexpected and unorthodox questions that provided thought-provoking impulses. This has been a wonderful opportunity to cross academic borders, to strengthen existing friendships and to make new ones.
